From the Wellsburg Herald.) Col. ALEX. CAMPBELL, of Bethany has just returned from a somewhat pro-tracted visit to Louisians.

OPERATIONS are progressing as fast as the nature of the case will permit on the railroad embankments and bridges.

THE measles are prevailing to some ex-tent at and about Bethany. One latal case, Joseph Morgan, a young man, is reported. A nor named Bright, living at Bethany, had his leg amputated recently, in conse-quence of injuries received sometime pre-vious while skating.

SMALL depredations in the thieving line are the order of the day or rather of the night. The best preventive we recom-mend, next to having nothing to steal, is to take care of what you have. THE understanding is that the arrange

THERE has been some changes in real estate in town of late. Mr. Allen sold his property, formerly known as the Merryan property, for $2,000, to John Lewis

SEVERAL parties, among them Mrs. Frank Meade, who was just on the point of starting for Philadelphia, broke through the shore ice at the ferry landing on Wed nesday, when about crossing. They all got out with nothing more serious than an untimely cold bath, but in the lady's case, the escape is represented as having been rather a narrow one.

The House of Delegates last Tuesday adopted a resolution to take a recess from ously entrered on Tuesday, night last, the safe blown to pieces with powder, and the windows somewhat shattered by the explosion, but so far as known, nothing of value carried off. The safe was rausucked, but luckily there was no money in it, but a very small sum in change, perhaps a dollar and a half, which the burglars neglected, probably in disguist, to carry off. The explosion occurred about 2 A. M. and was heard by several parties in the and was heard by several parties in the neighborhood. Some tools were also taken from a neighboring shop to effect an entrance, and left lying among the debris.
